SOLEMNISATION OF HOLY MATRIMONY

ACCORDING TO THE RITES OF THE INDIAN ORTHODOX CHURCH

PART I

THE BLESSING OF THE RINGS

(Both the bridegroom and the bride shall stand before the Altar, the bride on the right side of the bridegroom.)

Priest: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and the Holy Spirit, one true God.

People: As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen

Priest: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, Heaven and earth are full of Thy Glory, Hosanna in the Highest.

People: Blessed is He, who has come and is to come, in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the Highest

THE KAUMA

Priest: Holy art Thou, O God

People: Holy art Thou, Almighty.
Holy art Thou, Immortal
‡ Crucified for us, have mercy on us. (Repeat 3 x).

Priest: Lord, have mercy on us

People: Lord, be kind and have mercy,
Lord, accept Thou our service and our prayers, have mercy on us

Priest: Glory be to Thee, O God

People: Glory be to Thee, O Creator
Glory be to Thee, O Christ, King who has compassion on us, Thy sinful servants.
Barekmor

Lord's Prayer

OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Peace be unto Mariam

PEACE be unto you, Mariam, full of grace, our Lord is with you, blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, our Lord Jesus Christ. Holy Virgin Mariam, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at all times, and at the hour of our death. Amen

Priest: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

People: And on us weak and sinful servant mercy and compassion in both worlds now and forever. Amen

PRAYER

Priest: O Lord God, make us worthy of Thy ever-lasting joy. May the source and the fullness of our happiness be with Thee and in Thee. May our souls and spirits rejoice in Thee. By Thy mercy wipe away all our sorrows. May our spiritual strength be increased by Thy kindness. May our thoughts be enriched. May this Bridegroom be made perfect and this Bride noble. With Thee and with Thy holy saints who have pleased Thee from the beginning, may we rejoice in Thy eternal happiness. O Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we offer Thee glory and praise in the fellowship of Thy saints and in the communion of Thy dear ones, now and forever more. Amen.

Psalm 51

A: Have mercy on me, O God according to Thy steadfast love.
B: According to Thine abundant mercy wipe out my transgressions.
A: Wash me completely from my iniquity; cleanse me thoroughly from my sin.
B: For I know my transgressions my sin is always before me to see.
A: Against Thee, Lord, against Thee have I sinned. I have done what is evil in Thy sight.
B: So Thou art right when Thou condemnest me, Thy judgement of me is blameless.
A: See, I was born in sinfulness from the time my mother conceived me I am a sinner
B: Look, Thou demandest truthfulness on the inside, then teach me wisdom in the depth of my heart.
A: Cleanse, me with hyssop, and I shall be clean, wash me, let me become whiter than snow.
B: Fill me with joy and gladness, let these broken bones rejoice in Thee.
A: Do not look upon my sins, wipe out all my iniquities.
B: Create in me a clean heart, O God set a new and steadfast spirit inside me.
A: Do not throw me out from Thy presence, do not take away Thy Holy Spirit from me.
B: Give back to me the joy of Thy salvation, keep me straight with a willing spirit.
A: Only then can I teach evil men Thy ways, then sinners will come back to Thee.
B: Deliver me from the death of vengeance, O God, God of my salvation. My tongue will sing aloud of Thy saving act.
A: O Lord, open Thou my lips and my mouth shall sing forth Thy praise
B: For it is not in sacrifices that Thou takes delight. If I were to offer a burnt offering that would not please Thee
A: My sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit, a broken heart, penitent, O God, Thou will not despise
B: Do good to Thy people in Thy good pleasure, build again the walls of Jerusalem, Thy Church,
A&B: So will thou be pleased with the right sacrifices, burnt offering, bulls offered on Thine altar. Barekmor

Priest: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

People: From ages unto ages forever and ever. Amen

People: Moriyo rahem melei nua darain... (Lord have mercy on us)

ETHRO

(Prayer read by priest and incense is offered)

Priest: O Lord, the true and faithful Bridegroom, who dost betroth to Thyself pure and virgin souls, behold these Thy servants who have been betrothed each to the other and have accepted Thee as the mediator of their matrimony, through us Thy Imperfect ministers who stand before the greatness of Thy Majesty. Give them Thy grace that the sweet fragrance of virtuous action may rise up from them. Pure love and peace, goodwill and inseparable unity, abide amongst them. Strengthen them that they may be kept holy in soul and body and that they may offer glory and thanksgiving to Thee and to Thy Father and to Thy Holy Spirit, now and forevermore.

THE BLESSING OF THE RINGS

*Priest: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, who blesses these rings, by His grace and abundant mercy.

The Celebrant waving his right hand over the rings, chants aloud

These rings are blessed for the perfection of the joy of these children of the Holy Church in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Giving the ring to the bridegroom, the Celebrant says

May the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ be stretched out upon thee in mercy. With this ring of thy betrothal may thou receive the grace and blessing of His mercy. May His right hand which is full of goodness and blessing be with thee and guard thee all the days of thy life. Amen.

Giving the ring to the bride, the Celebrant says

May the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ which is full of blessing be stretched out in secret upon thee. Receive thou this ring of thy betrothal from the hands of the Holy Celebrant as if from the hands of the Holy Apostles. In health of soul and body, and with heart felt joy, may thou offer up praise to Him and His Father and to His Holy Spirit now and forever more. Amen.

A prayer for the Bridegroom and the Bride

May the Lord God who hath perfected the joy of His Holy Church through His Messiah, perfect these our children who have been betrothed to each other, with truth and righteousness. May He grant them heavenly blessings along with these rings which they have received. May He adorn them with chastity and exalt them with meekness. May He perfect their betrothal with the rings of righteousness, as He perfected the betrothal of Isaac and Rebecca with gold ornaments. May this bridegroom rejoice with joy in his Great Salvation and may this bride be adorned with imperishable, incorruptible and beautiful apparel. May the beauty of their apparel with the seal of purity excel the beauty of gold. May God make their union and their coming together be pleasing to Him and for the growth of worthy character in them. May He keep far from them all hypocritical love, and kindle their hearts with the fire of love, that they may love each other. May He adorn them with imperishable beauty. May He grant them grace to govern all their thoughts with pure chastity, which far excels the fragrance of roses. May God save them from the hands of evil and envious men who hate their fellowmen. May he keep them safe from evil spirits who corrupt the purity of the most holy marriage. May the Lord grant to them from His abode seasons of goodness and years of blessings. Hearken, O Lord God, to the supplications of us Thy weak and sinful servants who stand before Thy Majesty. Grant them the gift of blessed children and seasons of joy. Enrich them with the true riches of good deeds. Confirm them in the true faith in You. May they remain in the true faith, and let their children also inherit the same. Multiply Thy blessings and Thy goodness on those who have come here for this celebration. Guard this bridegroom and this bride by Thy Victorious Cross O Father, Son and Holy Spirit, pour upon us all thy abundant mercies now and forevermore. Amen.

"I am blessed", exclaims the Church
"Who has truly betrothed me?"
I worship that good Bridegroom
Who came down and betrothed me

On that day He betrothed me
Creation was astonished
For the poor girl became rich
I am bless'd and exalted

He clothed me with armor of
The Spirit from baptism
Placing His body and blood
As the ring on my finger

I had no fear of the way
Nor had I fear of robbers
For the Jordan I set out
Searching for Him in the crowd

I heard His voice and rejoiced
And my face became radiant
I embraced Him and kissed Him
Lovingly He spoke to me

"Come with peace, O my fair one
Whom I betrothed on the cross
To my Father I a-scend
I send you my Ho-ly Ghost"

HOOTHOMO (FINAL PRAYER)

O Ye faithful, who have come prepared for this act of witness, which has been sanctified by God. May God reward you thirty, sixty and a hundred-fold. May He reward you with good things at all times. May the cross of our Lord, be with you by night and by day and keep you safe from the evil one and his hosts.

PART II

THE ORDER OF THE BLESSING OF THE CROWNS

Priest: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

People: And on us weak and sinful servant mercy and compassion in both worlds now and forever. Amen

Priest: O Lord God, make us worthy of the endless feast and the imperishable bridal chamber. Invite us, O Lord to thy eternal joys along with the companions of the bridegroom who are invited to that feast. And we offer up glory and praise to the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever more..... Amen.

By our Lord's hand, the crown
Which descends from heaven
Is fitting and placed on
The groom's head by the priest

Choir:

1. Grant joy to priests and deacons
And by the crowns grant gladness
To the bride and bridegroom
In their bridal chamber
2. How splendid is the crown
Which Christ the King plaits and is Placed on the heads of the Bride and groom by the priest
3. True Bridegroom, whose Wedding feast lasts forever
Come quickly that we may
Rejoice with you forever

(The Celebrant place the Crown on the head of bridegroom and pray.)

Priest: May the Lord crown thee with the crown of righteousness, and adorn thee with incorruptible garments. May he clothe thee with the victorious armor that withstands all the power of the enemy. Amen.

The Celebrant, waves the crown ceremoniously three times, in the likeness of the cross, above the Bride's head and chants the same prayer three times and the third response as follows.

Response (repeat 1 & 2 as above)

- (3) Ma-na-vaa-lan than ma-ku-dam,

ssa-thra-sam.

The groom's crown resembles
The crown of thorns of - our Lord
The bride's crown re-sembles
The crown of the chaste women

The celebrant places the crown on head of the bride and prays.

May the Lord adorn you with the crown of righteousness and with ornaments of imperishable beauty. May you be enabled to rejoice all the days of your life, offering up glory to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit now and forever more.

TYING OF THE 'MINNU'

(In accordance with the ancient Indian tradition the Bridegroom ties 'Minnu' around the bride's neck)

A PRAYER FOR THE BRIDEGROOM AND BRIDE

May the Lord who takes delight in human lives be pleased with your lives and bless your union. May the Heavenly Bridegroom set His seal upon your marriage. May you have joy in each other as the Messiah rejoices in His Church. May the right hand of His mercy rest upon you and protect you from all evil. May He guard you from jealousy and remove from you all sorrows. May the angel of peace be with you and keep you from the evil ways of Satan. May the Lord deliver you from the jealousy of that destroyer, unite you to each other, and remove from you all sorrows.

May the Lord grant you the gift of blessed children so that you may rejoice in them as Abraham rejoiced in Isaac, and Isaac in Jacob, and Jacob in Joseph. May the blessing which God gave Noah saying "Be fruitful and increase, and fill the earth," abide with you. May the blessings which God gave Abraham and Isaac and Jacob be yours. May God grant you dew from heaven and all the good fruits that the earth produces.

May the blessing which Jacob gave his son Joseph saying, "The God of your fathers shall help you," abide with you.. May the blessings of all those who loved God and obeyed His commandments dwell upon you and upon the crowns which the Celebrant have placed on your heads this day. May all people rejoice and glorify God because you have been called in His name.

May God bless and prosper you and may He forgive your sins as he forgave the sins of the woman who was a sinner. May you inherit the heavenly kingdom as did the thief who was at his right hand. May all our departed ones obtain remission of their sins. May the Most High who came down on Mount Sinai to make a covenant with the bride who came out of Egypt bless you and this congregation. May we all glorify the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever.

Open to us Lord, your great door full of mercy Hear our prayer and have mercy upon our souls

O Son of God, stretch out your hand, and bless
+ the bride

And the bridegroom, and bless the crowns
upon their heads

Bless + O Lord, the bride and the bridegroom
by their names

Bless all the years of their lives in the world of light

May this congregation be blessed + forever

By the prayers of the Blessed Virgin and the saints

Bless O Lord + that your servants might sing your praises

May they offer You sincere praises with their harps

You who hear all, hear us now and receive prayers

And petitions and have mercy upon our souls

HOOTHOMO (THE FINAL PRAYER)

Beloved brethren, we have a tradition handed down from our fathers whereby, as we are assembled in God's dwelling place, we are enjoined to exhort all the faithful, especially this bridegroom and bride, that they should at all times be zealous about truth and justice and good works.

Dear children, bear in mind that you are in God's presence, before the Lord's Table, the Cross, the Holy Gospel and this congregation. You are in the presence of Him who knows the innermost thoughts of your hearts. Behold, from this time forth, I entrust you to each other (Here the Celebrant joins their right hands together) God is our witness that I will be guiltless of anything you do against His ordinances.

May God's bountiful mercy and blessings be showered on the Celebrants, the deacons, the faithful, bridegroom and the bride, on the hosts and the guests. May the right hand of our Lord Jesus Christ be ever over them, through the prayers of the Blessed St. Mary, the Virgin Mother God and all the saints who loved Him and lived according to His commandments.

Again dear faithful brethren, be it known unto you that these commandments are for all of you - how each one of you should behave towards this wife. She has left her own people and has been joined to her husband. Therefore he must please her and show kindness to her. He must cherish her as he would cherish his own soul. He must feed and clothe her even if he has to go without food and clothing even if he is thirsty he must give her to drink. She too must always serve him dutifully and with love and affection.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with each one of us forever. Amen

THE NICENE CREED

Priest :* We Believe In One True God

The Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth and all of things visible and invisible.

And in One Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God; begotten of the Father before all worlds, Light of Light, Very God of Very God; begotten not made, being of the same substance with the Father and by whom all things were made.

- ❖ Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven.
- ❖ And was incarnate of the Holy Virgin Mary, the Theotokos, by the Holy Spirit; and became man.
- ❖ And was crucified for us in the days of Pontius Pilate and suffered, and died and was buried.

And on the third day rose again according to his will, ascended into heaven, sat on the right hand of the Father, and shall come again in His great glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And in one living Holy Spirit, the life giving Lord of all, who proceeds from the Father and Who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified; who spoke by the prophets and the Apostles.

And in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

And we acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and look for the resurrection of the dead, and in the new life in the world to come. Amen

BENEDICTION

Priest: May God, the creator of heaven and earth, bless you and keep you. May God bless and sanctify all those who have participated in this spiritual service. May God our Lord grant you and your faithful departed forgiveness of sins. O Father, Son and Holy Spirit, grant that our feeble and unworthy prayers be pleasing and acceptable before Thy exalted throne, now and always forever and ever... Amen...
